

Command Sgt. Maj. Michael T. Howard

Command Senior Enlisted Leader

Command Sergeant Major Michael Howard currently serves as the Command Senior Enlisted Leader at Fort Belvoir Community Hospital. Belvoir Hospital is a 120-bed, 1.3 million-square-foot military community hospital that serves a regional population of 250,000 beneficiaries with over 92,000 enrollees receiving inpatient and specialty care services supported by 55 specialty clinics, a Warrior Pavilion (for combat injured/wounded/ill), Inpatient Addictions Program, and two satellite family health centers at Dumfries and Fairfax, Va.

Prior to assuming his current position, Command Sgt. Maj. Howard was the Command Sergeant Major, 212th Combat Support Hospital, Miesau, Germany. As the Command Sergeant Major he was the command's senior enlisted advisor responsible for the discipline, standards and operational readiness of one of the Army's oldest and most decorated field hospitals.
